(current Rocket Software B.V., hereinafter referred to as the "Plaintiff") in Belgium. Sysmex Corporation hereby announces with the details described as below that the Plaintiff and Sysmex have reached settlement agreement and the Lawsuit will be terminated by the Plaintiff's withdrawal.

1. Background from filing of the Lawsuit to settlement

In April 2020, the Plaintiff summoned Sysmex before the Dutch-Speaking Enterprise Court of Brussels, Belgium. The plaintiff alleged that Sysmex breached a software license agreement (hereinafter referred to as the "Agreement"; the Agreement was terminated in January 2020) executed in 2002 between Sysmex Corporation and Compuware N.V. (hereinafter referred to as "Compuware"; the Plaintiff acquired Compuware assets, including the Agreement, in 2014). On August 23, 2021 (Central European Time), the Dutch-Speaking Enterprise Court of Brussels, Belgium rendered a judgment and the Plaintiff has filed an appeal against this judgment to the Court of Appeal of Brussels, Belgium on November 8, 2021 (Central European Time).

While proceeding with the Lawsuit, the Plaintiff and Sysmex had discussions for a settlement and a settlement has been reached.

- (2) Registered Office: Dordrecht, Netherlands

3. Details of the settlement

The Plaintiff and SAI have entered into a new license agreement under which the Plaintiff provides SAI with a software license for maintenance support to its customers for a certain period of time, and SAI pays a certain amount as the consideration to the Plaintiff. Also, based on the settlement, the Plaintiff will withdraw the Lawsuit and all the other claims against Sysmex related to the Lawsuit.

4. Future outlook

Based upon the settlement, the Plaintiff will proceed with the withdrawal of the Lawsuit and the Lawsuit will be terminated upon completion of required court procedures.

The termination of the Lawsuit based upon the settlement has no significant financial impact for Sysmex.
